Thought for the Week

“At times our own light goes out and is rekindled by a spark from another person. Each of us has cause to think with deep gratitude of those who have lighted the flame within us.”

-Albert Schweitzer

Dear Parents/Guardians:

Thank you for driving through the parking lot last week for our “Spooktastic” Literacy Night. It was a great treat to see you and our Olympian scholars.

The second term is moving quickly as we continue to challenge our scholars to do their best work every day.

As always, we appreciate your patience and your support as we continue to improve virtual learning for our Olympian scholars.

~ Stay Safe!

New Namesake Update

Students will vote on a new namesake this morning. A google link will be provided during school hours.

Going for the Gold in Class Attendance

Please be sure your child attends each scheduled class every day. As a reminder, all students have an arts access or emphasis class every day from 11:45 a.m. - 12:30 p.m. Students will receive a grade for these courses.

Renaissance News

Please be sure your scholar is reading daily and taking AR tests within his/her reading zone. The goal is for students to score 85% or above on each test.

Olympian Free Library

Please drive by to check out our free library outside of the school. The books are free! Please take one.
