STUDENT ATTENDANCE

Teachers will take attendance daily, but the meaning of attendance changes—virtual learning attendance is more about engagement than physical presence.

- Active Time Spent in LMS – This indicates the time a scholar is active in a course that is logged and recorded by a learning management system (LMS) and is used by the District as a method to track participation in the course.
- Scholar Submissions in an LMS – This indicates required coursework submissions by a scholar in a course that is logged and recorded by an LMS and is used by the District as a method to track participation in the course.
- Other Indicators in an LMS – This indicates specific feature(s) that are logged and recorded by an LMS and is used by the District as a method to track participation in the course.
- Teacher Tracked Work Time – This indicates the time a scholar is actively working on group projects and/or offline work that is logged and recorded by the course teacher and is used by the District as a method to track participation in the course.
- Teacher and Scholar Communication – This indicates academic-based communication between a scholar and the course teacher or the teacher and parent/guardian and is logged by the teacher and is used by the District as a method to track participation in the course.
- Other Indicators Tracked by the Teacher – This is a description of scholar participation activities that are logged and recorded by the course teacher and is used by the District as a method to track participation in the course.

ATTENDANCE GUIDANCE FOR TEACHERS AND PARENTS

- Synchronous Online – Scholars attending school virtually will log in to the LMS during homeroom. Teachers will record attendance for the scholars and submit them to the office for input into the scholar information system by the office staff.
- Asynchronous Online – Attendance will be captured daily through engagement with the LMS.
- Asynchronous Offline (Print Assignments) – Attendance will be captured through a survey that will be accessible through Active Parent or Active Student. The survey will be active from 6:45 a.m.–5 p.m.

How Attendance Participation May Look:

- Attending video conference sessions.
- Participating in threaded discussions.
- Completing and submitting assignments (Note: Scholars without a device or connectivity will submit paper-based assignments.)
- Taking an assessment online and/or paper/pencil.
- 1:1 communication via phone/email/Canvas or Google Classroom.

Elementary schools will use the learning management system for tracking scholar engagement and academic progress. All scholars are expected to have contact with their classroom teacher daily.

PARENTS, YOUR SUPPORT IS GREATLY APPRECIATED. PLEASE FEEL FREE TO CONTACT US AT 601-987-3525.

G. N. SMITH ELEMENTARY SCHOOL

WELCOME BACK G. N. SMITH FAMILY!

During this unprecedented time, ongoing learning remains essential for our scholars as the foundation for future grades, courses, and post-secondary plans. The shift to learning from home is how we can continue to support our scholars in their K-12 education. Continued learning is essential. The approaches we take – as a region and as individual districts – must account for the varied realities of our scholars. In order to ensure equity in opportunities and outcomes, our scholars' learning needs are a vital charge of our work and actions.
