Supplemental Food Support

Dinner Meals - free to children and adults

Our generous Community Partners have provided funding for a total of 3,000 hot dinner meals:

500 meals per site
for two days:

- Bates/Cardozo
- Chastain Middle
- Galloway Elementary

Thursday, March 26
3:00- 5:00 p.m.

- Chicken Tetrazzini
- Green Beans
- Dinner Roll
- Utensils/Napkin

Friday, March 27
3:00- 5:00 p.m.

- Baked Chicken
- Oven Roasted Potatoes
- California Vegetables
- Garlic toast
- Utensils/Napkin

How You Can Provide Support

- Volunteers: 6-8 per site to distribute meals, curbside, preferably into car trunks.
- Financial donations to continue the dinner meals ($4,628 per week/site).
- Financial donations to provide weekend Family Food Boxes, beginning Friday, April 3. We are currently seeking a food vendor to provide specific items, which will determine the actual costs. Stay tuned.

Continue doing good & tell us about it: sherjohnson@jackson.k12.ms.us

Guidelines for Volunteers

Meal distribution site volunteers must:

- Report to their chosen site by 2:00 p.m. to undergo a wellness check by medical personnel. Anyone with temps above 100.4 cannot participate.
- Wearing (PPE) masks, gloves and aprons (JPS will provide) at all times while distributing items to families is mandatory.

Campus Enforcement

Guidelines

- All volunteers will park in a designated area, directed by JPS Campus Enforcement.
- Prior to reporting to school sites, Volunteers MUST send their name, phone number and email, including a specified lead volunteer, from your organization, to: tfaulkner@Jackson.k12.ms.us
- Thea Faulkner will send an confirmation email regarding specific assignments.
- All volunteers be provided with a distinctive item to wear while onsite.
