General Information

Description

Welcome to Monitor & Consultation

The Monitor & Consultation course is designed to give exceptional education students specialized instruction in the core class. This course is adjusted to the needs of the students who do not perform satisfactorily in the subject area class. The course must allow flexible adjustment of materials and methods for individual differences. This course will be activity-based, allowing students to explore and investigate concepts to build a stronger foundation of basic skills. Exceptional Education teachers plan lessons according to their students' unique needs and abilities as they utilize differentiation and other learning styles.

The Exceptional Education teachers will collaborate with the General Education teachers in order to reach these students effectively and efficiently. Objectives not mastered in the core classes will be remediated. Objectives indicate concepts that enable fulfillment of competencies, describe competencies in further detail, or show the progression of concepts throughout the grades. School districts may adopt the objectives, modify them, and are encouraged to write their own objectives to meet the needs of students in their school district.

College and Career Readiness Standards

In an effort to closely align instruction for students who are progressing toward postsecondary study and the workforce, the 2016 Mississippi College- and Career-Readiness Standards include grade- and course-specific standards for K-12 mathematics.

The primary purpose of this document is to provide a basis for curriculum development for Grades K-12 teachers, outlining what students should know and be able to do by the end of each grade level and course. Courses for grades K-12 are based on the Mississippi College- and Career-Readiness Standards (MS CCRS).
