

Forest Hill JROTC Patriot Battalion

November 2015
Volume 1, Issue 2

Teams Triumph

Hard work does pay off and the Cadet Challenge team, Color Guard and Drill teams all have embodied this statement.

During the Hazelhurst Cadet Challenge event Cadet Courtney Moore brought the first place trophy for faster female in the 1 mile run event and the team place third overall.

The Drill team and Color Guard team joined the Sweat bring success team on Oct 31, 2015 as they won third overall at the Capital Region Intraservice Drill Meet. (page 2 cont)

Farewell to Principal Warfield

We will miss the Forest Hill, Chief Instructional leader, most supportive campus educator and mentor, Dr Kimberly Warfield. Good luck and thank you for sharing yourself with us. You will not be forgotten and you will be forever loved by us.

Dr. Warfield is continuing to seek high goals for the Forest Hill Patriot family as she teaches on the collegian level.

Leaders Shine

Tasha Conerly an honor roll Junior was selected to be a part of the 2015 Fall Military Order of World Wars (MOWW) student leadership conference in Huntsville, AL.

Imonje Mingott, Miss Forest Hill is a graduating senior with honors, ranked in the top 3% of her class, a member of the JROTC color guard, Dancing Doll dancing troop, and aspires to attend Alabama State University.

Meet Your Mac '15

The Meet You Mac night was Oct 5-7 and a make-up night of Oct 13, 2015. 185 LET I /LET II are a part of the over 400

Forest Hill High Patriots that actively participate in the JPS District One to One technology initiative this year. Our BN helped to educate the parents and cadets of their responsibilities, the methods to care for the MacBook Air devices and give them a helped them with a little hands on time with the computers.

JROTC 5th BN provided greeters, technician support (LET II's that used the devices last year), briefers and support personnel totaling 25 to 30 person during the entire event. We want to give a special thank you to Cadet Kierra Coleman and Tarruntea Thigpen for their dedication and hard work as they worked every night as the two co cadet leaders. LTC Prowell was the briefer for the parent session on first three nights.

This Quarter's Highlights

Team Triumph Cont

The top three team from this drill competition will represent the Capital Region North schools, 14 November 2015 in Gulfport, MS.

Hard work does pay off. Go Patriots

JAMBOREE 2015

2015 – Dr. (AF MAJ (R)) Valerie Short inspired over 300 JROTC cadets on Oct 29, 2015. The Forest Hill Battalion hosted this JPS Director of Army Instruction annual event. Dr Short has three major points of be Prepared, visualize yourself as a success and do not allow others to limit your dreams, but you must always work hard.

Cadet's Truth

- Lead by setting the example
- A closed fist cannot give or receive anything
- What comes easy, won't last; what last, won't come easy
- A good education is the ultimate key to a promising future
- Your Tomorrow is determined by your dedication to it Today

Service Learning: (Cancer Awareness)

The 2015/2016 Patriot service learning project is Cancer Awareness. The cadets partnering with Central Magnolia chapter of Susan G. Komen, Inc. will learn and share information about cancer, it's effects on family members, the benefit of healthy eating and physical fitness.

November

JLAB competition
Freshman Career Fair
Parent Support meeting resume
Veteran Day visit/program
MSU STEM competition

December

State Drill Meet
Military Gala
Winter Break

January

Cadet of the Year board

Parent Support Group 2015

Community Service

Tuesday, September 29 at 5:30 – 8:00 PM,
Mississippi Agricultural Museum.

Honoring Veterans

November 10 @ 9:30 AM

Military Gala

Consolidate JPS district JROTC programs,
December 18, 2015 @ 5:30 PM until midnight.

Yearly Schedule

The Patriot PSG will meet every third
Thursday of the month from 6:00 PM until 7:00 PM.

Fund Raiser

Chicken boxes every other month

Remind 101

Stay informed of Battalion events by texting
81010 your name & child name [@jrotcpatr]

Thank You Patriot!