Directions for Summer Reading Log

- 1. Read your book, either by yourself or with another person. Reread parts that you especially like or that seem most important.
  - 2. Think about your book. If possible, talk to another person about some or all of these questions:
    - What scene in the book stands out in your memory?
    - What was the main character like?
    - Did the main character change during the book?
    - Was there a problem and how was it solved?
    - What would you have done if you had been in the story?
    - What new thing did you learn in this book?
    - Does the story remind you of something that happened to you? If so, how is your experience like the book?
  - 3. Complete a Log Entry.
    - Write the title and author of your book.
    - Use the questions above to draw and/or write about your book.
- * Required titles should be read by scholar rising from the previous grade to next grade level. Scholars in Grades PreK-1 are required to read the required title and select two titles of choice. Students may choose from a list of ten titles (see Summer Reading page) , from the public library's list, or other sources.
