DENIED BOARDING COMPENSATION

Airlines occasionally offer free tickets or cash allowances to compensate travelers for delays and inconveniences due to overbooking, flight cancellations, changes of equipment etc. Travelers may volunteer for denied boarding compensation only if the delay in their trip will not result in any interruption of business or any additional cost. In these cases, the employee is free to keep the compensation.

Unused air or rail tickets or flight coupons must never be discarded or destroyed as these documents may have cash value.

All tickets are issued electronically and tracked with an online system in the AP Department.

Converting unused tickets to tickets for personal use will be considered occupational fraud.

AIRLINE PENALTY FARES

Airline penalty fares may be utilized when needed. The Accounts Payable Dept will honor reimbursement requests for penalty fares and administrative fees when business circumstances require that schedules are changed or canceled. Such tickets are non-transferable. Although the ticket is issued in the employee’s name, the ticket belongs to the District.

Most carriers require that changes be made and re-ticketed on or before the departure date of each ticketed flight. You may be able to exchange the return portion for a fee. The carriers may also charge a fee for customers who standby for an alternate flight on his or her ticketed day of departure. Check with the airline for more information. A receipt for any fees charged should be attached to the Travel Reimbursement Request for reimbursement.

To obtain the lowest possible penalty fare, airline travel should be booked as far in advance as possible.

Where the employee is required to go a day early to qualify for a low-priced penalty airfare, the state will pay the additional lodging and meal expenses not to exceed the amount of savings in the airfare.

FREQUENT FLYER PROGRAM AWARDS

Any bonus or promotional gratuity received as a gratuity as a result of official JPS travel shall be used to offset or reduce the cost of subsequent official JPS travel. Under no circumstances can the traveler keep a bonus or other promotional gratuity so earned for his own personal use. As sufficient mileage, earned as a result of state-paid travel, is accumulated, free ticket coupons will be applied for and used to offset official JPS travel costs.

It is expressly understood that while using a privately owned vehicle, the operator assumes all responsibility for accidents to the extent of the operator's insurance coverage.

The District will pay a standard rate per mile for official travel by private automobile based on the actual driving distance by the shortest, most direct, practical route. Under normal circumstances, mileage is computed from the traveler's normal worksite to the destination and return to the traveler's normal worksite (excluding weekend travel).

Currently, reimbursement for in-district travel is at the rate of .67 cents per mile (as of 2024.) Out-of-town travel is reimbursed at the rate of .21 centers per mile (as of 2024.) These rates will adjust as the federal government adjusts its rate, typically the first of the calendar year.

When two or more JPS employees travel in one private vehicle, only one travel expense at the authorized reimbursement rate per mile shall be allowed. The person claiming reimbursement shall report the names of other JPS employee passengers.

Employees may not request reimbursement for gasoline as this is covered by the mileage rate.

Travelers using a privately owned vehicle to travel out of state on official JPS business will be reimbursed mileage at the most economical mode of transportation - normally the lowest airfare. A comparison will be made between driving vs. airfare. Please use the Optimizer excel info locate on the intranet under Forms & Docs

HOTELS

Employees should always select a hotel that is the most economical for their business trip if it is not one of the preferred hotels.

When traveling to a conference or seminar, it is appropriate to stay at the hotel hosting the conference or seminar, assuming that the daily rate is not unreasonably expensive relative to other alternatives.

Or if an employee chose to stay with relatives, he or she will be reimbursed for meals but must have prior approval from supervisor and attach a copy to travel reimbursement request.

Per Diem – per diem allowances includes meals and tips for food service handlers at restaurants. Meals must be itemized separately. Receipts and related documentation are required when requesting reimbursement for meals using the per diem. The allowable per
