

DISPOSAL OF STUDENT MADE PROJECTS

At the end of each student appraisal reporting period, project articles fabricated or constructed by secondary school students from material supplied by the school district may be sold to students or others desiring to purchase such articles for the cost of materials required in construction as determined by the instructor. The instructor shall receipt the purchaser on the regular pre-numbered receipt form and the money shall be submitted to the principal who will monthly transmit it to the finance office.

SOURCE: Jackson Public School District, Jackson, Mississippi

DATE: November 27, 1978

REVIEWED: December 6, 2016