

INITIATION ACTIVITIES

Initiation activities of any type are prohibited for any student in relation to any school sponsored curricular or extra-curricular activity and will subject the student to disciplinary action. Initiation activity is defined as the rites, ordeals, instructions or other similar type ceremonies with which one is made a member of an organization or society, or is invested with a particular function or status. Initiation does not include induction into an organization.

SOURCE: Jackson Public School District, Jackson, Mississippi
LEGAL REF.: Section 37-11-37 through 37-11-45, Miss. Code of 1972
DATE: September 16, 1985
August 16, 2016