

PLAYING ON SCHOOL SITES

During the school day, school sites are under the immediate supervision of the school principals and are reserved for use of students, volunteers, and school personnel. After school hours and when school is not in session, children and adults of the community may use school grounds as follows:

With the approval of the superintendent or designee, school grounds may be engaged for programs of adult-supervised activities by organizations and governmental agencies. Interested organizations or governmental agencies are to be directed to the office of the superintendent or designee regarding applications for use of school sites for supervised play. Each such organization or governmental agency shall provide insurance coverage required by the Jackson Public School District.

The board does not assume responsibility for any personal injury occurring on school sites through supervised or unsupervised activities after school hours.
